Friends of BARC

These summer Saturdays are hot! But since the heat isn't going away, we made the best of it. 29 dogs and 12 cats were adopted! 3 puppies and 2 kittens were fostered, and 1 cat transferred! 47 females with new pups! Like!!! 100 degree temperatures can't stop us!

Come out again TODAY! Still have several "LAST CHANCE" dogs needing out by this weekend, including COCOA, CARLY and KURENAI. ROSCOE, LILLY, LEXIE and MIDNIGHT have a few more days (we think). BARC - 3200 Carr St - open Noon - 6:00! about an hour ago · Like

Alfred Moran We are so grateful to Friends of BARC. It's so unfortunate that your message uses the term, "Last Chance". Very sad message, and it certainly continues to demonize all the wonderful people at BARC. Very unfortunate. Also unacceptable! about an hour ago · Like

No sense in whitewashing the reality too much! Messages have been toned down greatly as it is, per request.. there's is no "demonizing" - The people are great at BARC, no doubt!! The facts are numbers & space available, that's all. This - (several dogs "last chance" - it is what it is. Censorship is also unacceptable in America. about an hour ago · Like

Alfred Moran Yes, but we have the keys to the front and the back gates, and we are going to control the messages when the term BARC is used! 59 minutes ago · Like

I am deeply saddened that the status of animals that have run out of time due to capacity issues at a public tax-payer supported facility cannot be shared with the very public that pays for their upkeep and maintenance via taxes and the revenue that they generate when paying for rabies vaccines, licenses, redemption fees, adoption fees, and donations. Admitting that the shelter is full, when it is, does not demonize anyone. It states a factual circumstance that
